Helaine and Ira Soller

October brings Helaine and Ira Soller to the Weir Farm Artist-in-Residence program. By emphasizing the beauty and drama of natural forms, interpreting nature unfolding at a moment in time, Helaine seeks to incorporate awareness of nature into everyday environments.

Her style combines expressionism, abstraction and realism.

Nature challenges her to invent a personal language using spontaneous brush strokes to capture its rhythms and forms. She works directly on canvas loosely plotting the composition's flow, infusing the paintings with a sense of freedom and discovery which supports the interpretation of nature on a personal level. Ira Soller, Helaine's husband, is a photographer and will be documenting her work. The program is co-sponsored by Weir Farm Art Center and Weir Farm National Historic Site and presented by Wilton Library. There is no charge. Registration is suggested. Please see the library's registration link for details.
